Lucky Paws is a nonprofit corporation, and volunteer expenses such as mileage, food for fosters, telephone bills for rescue business, and so on are tax deductible (consult your tax advisor for specifics on this issue),

*Volunteers accept liability for personal injury or damages caused by a foster animal and any expenses incurred, including to the foster animal, that are incurred due to negligence. Volunteers agree by signing below that working with animals is unpredictable, and the utmost caution must be taken in caring for foster animals. Lucky Paws will provide routine vet care for its animals. No expenses will be reimbursed to a foster home without written and prior approval of the Executive Board.

If there is an emergency, please contact 408-829-6733 by phone/text before taking an animal to a vet outside of our approved clinics. Cascade Animal Clinic can be contacted M-F 8-5 and Sat 8-12 at 541-741-1992 in case of emergency.

Food and all necessary

While the foster caregiver will be part of the adoption process to the best of our ability, all final decisions regarding the welfare of the animal will be the responsibility of Lucky Paws.

By submitting this application for consideration, you agree to abide by the policies and procedures of Lucky Paws and Pet Junktion Educational Services.

Moreover, you affirm that you are twenty-one years or older, that all the above information is true and acknowledge that Lucky Paws is relying on this information to be considered into the foster program. You understand that Lucky Paws may check landlord and veterinary references before an application is considered.
